Thanks Adele. Oreo's not awesome. I can't tell if it's the heat or something more, but he's just not feeling well. The only good part about working from home for part of this week is I get to keep an eye on him!

Hope things are going okay for you at home – and I hope you have air conditioning! 😊

Hi Adele! Sorry to do this, but I've changed my plans for that weekend and am now planning to work on Friday, 7/27 and take off Monday and Tuesday 7/30 -31. Can you look for a new date for this meeting?

Thanks!
D
